Licensed Professional Counselor/Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist

We are seeking a compassionate and experienced Licensed Professional Counselor or Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist to join our team. As a licensed provider, you will be responsible for providing individual therapy to those managing anxiety and trauma. Training in cognitive-behavioral therapy (CBT) and other evidence-based treatments is strongly preferred but not required.

Responsibilities

- Conduct initial evaluations to determine the needs of clients.
- Provide therapy to clients with mental health issues, including but not limited to depression, anxiety, addiction, and trauma.
- Create treatment plans and set goals for clients to achieve.
- Keep accurate and up-to-date client records using EHR (Simple Practice).
- Collaborate with other healthcare professionals to ensure the best possible care for clients.
- Stay up-to-date with the latest research, treatments, and therapies in the field of mental health.
- See a minimum of 5 clients per week (scheduling is completely flexible).

Qualifications

- Master's degree in Counseling or a related field.
- Active license to practice counseling in Pennsylvania (other states a plus).
- At least two years of experience in counseling or therapy.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team.
- Strong organizational and time management skills.
- Ability to maintain client confidentiality.

- Experience working with diverse populations.

Compensation

- This position is a 1099 position (i.e., contractor, responsible for own taxes).
- Hourly compensation assigned based on length of sessions.
- Reimbursement for CEUs.
- Free supervision and consultation in evidence-based treatments (PE, CPT, CBT).

About Us

- Black-owned mental health practice serving 30+ states in the US.
- Emphasizes culturally relevant care and evidence-based treatments.
- Community-first approach, with focus on increasing access to mental health care and availability of providers of color.

If you are a licensed mental health provider who is passionate about helping clients achieve their goals and improving their mental health, we would love to hear from you. Please submit your resume and a cover letter detailing your experience and qualifications.
